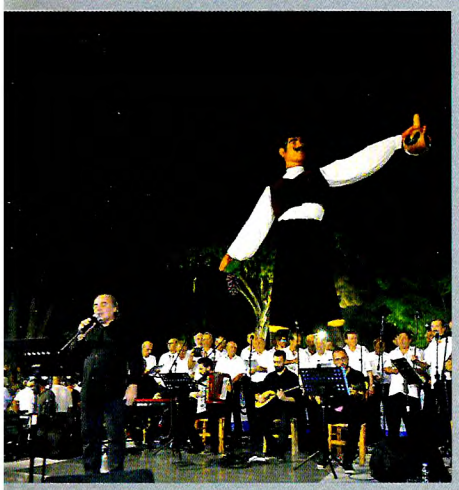
Limassol welcomed its World Champion!

LIMASSOL BRIMMED WITH JOY and pride on the evening of the 21st of September 2017 as it welcomed home Laser World Champion – and native son – Pavlos Kontides. Pavlos was welcomed at the Limassol Municipal Palace by Mayor Nicos Nicolaides and the town's entire municipal council. Accompanied by family and friends, Pavlos Kontides was congratulated by his fellow citizens for his great success. The Mayor of Limassol thanked him for once again making us proud and stressed that Pavlos Kontides had confirmed in the most compelling way that Limassol maintains its place as the birthplace of top sportsmen throughout Hellenism. Clearly moved Pavlos Kontides thanked everyone for the warm welcome, noting that "it is a sweet responsibility to inspire young people and be able to teach them". The Cypriot sailor achieved the biggest success of his career after his silver Olympic medal when he clichéd first place at the Sailing World Championships in Split on Tuesday, 19 September 2017.

Exhibition dedicated to Vasilis Michaelides Year

AS PART OF EVENTS to mark Vasilis Michaelides Year, the Municipality of Limassol is organising an art exhibition entitled "In the hidden winds, Vasilis Michaelides: Ramifications of the artistic creation of Cyprus", at the Limassol Municipal Art Gallery from 10 November to 31 December 2017. The exhibition, which presents works by Cypriot artists but also three artworks by Vasilis Michaelides, is curated by the director of the Municipality of Limassol's Cultural Services, Dr Nadia Anaxagorou.

A book will also be published, under the title "Vasilis Michaelides: Ramifications of the visual and poetic creation of Cyprus", which besides visual works will also include poems that were written following an open invitation extended by the Municipality of Limassol to Cypriot poets, as well as a compilation of earlier poems, which was prepared by philologist-researcher Dr Lefteris Papaleontiou. The editing of the book and the featured texts are by Nadia Anaxagorou and Lefteris Papaleontiou.



56th Wine Festival

More than 35,000 visitors, over 13,000 litres of bulk wine!

LOCAL AND FOREIGN VISITORS SPENT TEN DAYS "drinking in" the rhythms of the 56th Wine Festival held at the Limassol Municipal Gardens from 31 August to 10 September 2017. Taking part were Limassol's four main wineries – ETKO, KEO, LOEL and SODAP – and scores of smaller wineries. At the same time, around 60 kiosks offered visitors Cypriot delicacies and other traditional products. In his address, Limassol Mayor Nicos Nicolaides stressed that "today we can take pride in Cypriot wine, not just because it is among the most ancient in the world, but also because it holds an enviable place in modern wine production worldwide". After the 10-day celebrations were over and closing the 56th to make way for the 57th Wine Festival, Mr Nicolaides promised that the local authority will work with the aim of further enriching and updating an event which for decades now has been a trademark of the town of Limassol.

WE VISITED... THE LIMASSOL MUNICIPAL ART GALLERY

Historical building on coastal road home to important examples of Cyprus' artistic talent

A PRICELESS TREASURE IS HIDDEN in a historical building just a few feet away from the Limassol shoreline where images and visions of the past, the present and the future come alive on canvas, in sculpture and installations.

Here you can travel from one corner of Cyprus to the other and enjoy the landscape, neighbourhoods, seashores and seabed, the sunsets, winters and summers, and take a dive into the older and more recent history of the country.

It is the Limassol Municipal Art Gallery, where you can find one of the biggest and richest collections by artists from Limassol and across Cyprus.

The works of the fathers of Cypriot art "co-exist" harmoniously with the creations of the country's younger artists, decorating the old building's rooms, as well as those of the new building that was built as an extension in 1996.

The historical building was built around 1938 by German-Jewish architect Veniamin Ginzburg and was donated to the Municipality of Limassol in 1984 by Hypatia Zenonos, née Pavlides. It was inaugurated as the Limassol Municipal Art Gallery in 1988 and a few years later it was decided that it would be extended further to accommodate the municipality's ever-growing art collection.

The Municipal Art Gallery is visited each year by thousands of locals and tourists, art lovers but also pupils from public and private schools as part of their educational programmes. The Gallery's staff is always on site to take you on a tour of this exciting art journey.

Parking vehicles on public roads and pavements is illegal and costly

THE MUNICIPALITIES LAW AND RELEVANT REGULATIONS governs parking or use of any road, which includes a public road or pavement, with the aim of ensuring its unhindered and safe use by pedestrians, wheelchairs and prams. The law covers all types of vehicles.

Q: What are the main offences involving illegal parking or road use and what is the fine?

A: The fines range from between 50 and 85 euros. Analytically

- Parking on a pavement – €85
- Parking on a double yellow line – €65
- Parking on a single yellow line – €50
- Parking on a corner – €85
- Parking against the flow of traffic – €85
- Parking at a bus stop – €85
- Parking at a taxi rank – €50
- Parking in a disabled bay – €85
- Irregular vehicle immobilisation – €65
- Traffic obstruction – €50

Q: What does the law provide for in relation to parking in green areas, squares or the beach?

A: The law is very strict in these cases too. Offenders are punished with an €85 fine.
